

Let's tell yours.

Pretty soon,
things will get a little crazy at your house.
New people will move in,
and I don't just mean
that particular small person
you can't wait to meet,
but also a different you—suddenly known as Mom or Dad, maybe for the first time ever.

You'll hear all sorts of advice about time and how it passes when you are parents.
More quickly, more slowly ...
not quickly enough,
not slowly enough.

But let's face it—time will do what it likes.
We can't stop it, but we can pause and turn some of that time into a treasure
that you can look at and hold, together, for the rest of your lives.

So let's get together ... and take a little time.

I'll capture those quick, shy glances between the soon-to-be parents—half elated, half stunned.
All the “before” moments—nursery quiet and expectant, onesies folded and stacked,
toys shiny and clean, waiting to be loved.

As you enact a ritual and a passage shared with those who came before you, shared with those who will come after,
we will tell your version, yours forever.

Let's tell your story.

You pick the place and time, my camera and I will be there. And before we meet, we'll talk about optimal timing and locations, what you should wear, all your questions answered, so you feel relaxed and excited when storytelling begins. I generally shoot for anywhere from one to three hours, in two different locations, with a couple outfit changes (for you and the bellies and the babies, that is, not for me!). This lets us capture different aspects of your life and allows eating and dozing breaks for the babies. I'm there to get your story, as long as it takes, and there is no ticking clock.

Within seven days of our photo shoot, I'll visit you for an in-person review and ordering session. You'll get to see your 50 fully processed, print-ready photographs as a custom slideshow, and I'll help you choose the right combination of images and products, so you can enjoy your photographs — on your walls, at your office, on the coffee table — for years to come.

Please note that the photo session fee covers our time together and my time processing and preparing your proof images for review. All prints, digital files, and products are priced accordingly and are in addition to the session fee.
